

HISTORIC AMERICAN BUILDINGS SURVEY

INDEX TO PHOTOGRAPHS

U.S. NAVAL BASE, PEARL HARBOR, BATTERY ADAIR

HABS HI-432

(Fallout Shelter)

(U.S. Naval Base, Pearl Harbor, Naval Station Ford Island, Facility
No. 446)

Princeton Place

Pearl Harbor

Honolulu County

Hawaii

INDEX TO BLACK AND WHITE PHOTOGRAPHS

David Franzen, photographer, January 2001

- | | |
|----------|--|
| HI-432-1 | Oblique view showing rounded forms of gun chambers and walls of terrace above covered with vines |
| HI-432-2 | Corridor entry walls at southeast end |
| HI-432-3 | View of northwest end, with rounded gun chamber at left and garage created from engine and fan rooms on right |
| HI-432-4 | Detail of rounded casement cover over rooms between gun chambers, with modern stair from terrace in foreground |
| HI-432-5 | Interior view of main corridor, with doors to shell, powder, and plotting rooms visible. Corridor to southeast gun chamber on the right |
| HI-432-6 | Interior of southeast gun chamber (labeled "Gun Turret No. Two), showing gun mounting pad, wall rings, small niche, and opening to outside |
| HI-432-7 | Interior view of main corridor, with door to powder room (labeled "Magazine") in foreground, plotting room with barred windows and double doors in middle, and second powder room door in background |

U.S. NAVAL BASE, PEARL HARBOR, BATTERY ADAIR

HABS HI-432
INDEX TO PHOTOGRAPHS
PAGE 2

HI-432-8

Interior view of the northwest end corridor, showing doors and barred openings to former fan and engine rooms (now garage) and entry to northwest gun chamber (labeled "Gun Turret No. One")